Herd Bull Prospects, Proven Breeding
Matrons and Heifers of Great Promise, an Offering which will Rank with the Best
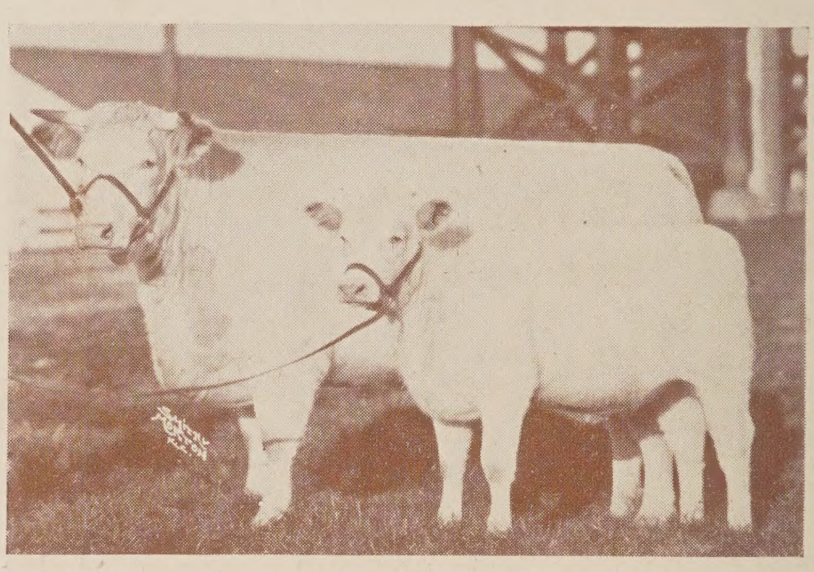
we have ever sold

JOS. MILLER & SONS
GRANGER, MISSOURI



QUEEN BESS 3D and calf, a noted show-yard character, which serves as a trade mark of Miller-bred quality.

A Word About the Offering

It may be said that this lot of cattle more accurately portrays the progress of this firm as constructive Shorthorn breeders and the influence of their operations upon the breed than any sale offering they have heretofore presented, due to the fact that it contains a more liberal percentage of their own production and cattle coming through generations of their own breeding.

Past offerings have in the case of individual entries been more highly conditioned, and some have contained more that would class in their present preparation as show cattle, but it is doubtful if they have sold an offering of greater worth from the standpoint of breeding usefulness than this group of cattle. It sustains their confidence in the performance of their own tribe of Cumberlands and proves the correctness of their selection of successors to the line of Cumberland sires.

It will rank as one of the topmost offerings of the season for the selection of cattle which will perform creditably either in new or established herds, and their blood lines will add to the standard of pedigree excellence no matter into what herds they might go.

WALTER L. MILLER.
of The Gazette.
